Medical Information:

At Convergence Dance Theatre, we care about the safety and the well-being of our students. Although we take utmost care with our students in class, dancing is a strenuous activity and accidents/and or injuries may occur. CDT and its instructors are not liable for personal injuries arising out of dance lessons or activity associated with CDT classes or performances. CDT or its instructors are not liable for loss or damage to personal property. Each student may decline to participate in any activity. Please inform your Instructor of any physical limitations you may have at the beginning of each class.
